

CHAPTER 2: Personnel

The Department of Environment and Natural Resources' (DENR's) 3,364 employees provide leadership, education and advocacy for the responsible stewardship of our state's environment and natural resources. DENR's wide-ranging responsibilities are reflected in the large number and variety of its employees' 440 different job classifications. Its broad mission is also reflected in the distribution of its employees — 59% of DENR's employees work in various regional offices, parks, state forests, and other locations outside Wake County.

DENR position count as of September 1, 2000
